

The Richard Doll Seminars in Public Health and Epidemiology

Hilary term, January – March 2012

Tuesdays 1-2pm

Lecture Theatre, Richard Doll Building, Old Road Campus

17 th January	Prof David Nutt Imperial College London Estimating drug harms: a risky business?
24 th January	Dr Carl Heneghan Department of Primary Health Care, University of Oxford Developing the evidence for self-care in non-communicable diseases
31 st January	Prof Jane Armitage and Dr Robert Clarke CTSU, University of Oxford Whitehall and Best-D, why we need more information about vitamin D
7 th February	Prof Peter Piot London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine Lessons from 30 years of global AIDS response
14 th February	Prof Winnie Yip Department of Public Health, University of Oxford Integrating research with China's health care reform: a Social Experiment to Improve Health Services Delivery in Rural China
21 st February	Dr Cathie Sudlow Division of Clinical Neurosciences, University of Edinburgh Phenotyping outcomes in very large prospective cohort studies: the example of stroke
28 th February	Prof Anne Mills London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine What makes a successful health system? 'Good Health at Low Cost' 25 years on
6 th March	Prof Montserrat Garcia-Closas The Institute of Cancer Research Gene-environment interactions in cancer aetiology: do they exist and what are the implications?

All welcome

Seminar Organisers: Miranda Armstrong and Fiona Bragg

Email rdseminars@ctsu.ox.ac.uk

<http://www.ceu.ox.ac.uk/rdseminars/>